My First Camping Trip

Last summer, I went camping for the first time in Florida with my family. But the dream vacation that my parents had been promising didn't start very well. (1) ____ He was so determined to finish quickly that he forgot to put sunscreen on or a hat, and by the time he had finished with the tents, he was as red as a tomato. An hour later he started to feel dizzy, and by the evening he had a fever. Luckily, there was a doctor at the campsite. (2)

That evening, with my father resting in the tent, my mother, sister and I decided to make the campfire. I collected the firewood from the forest and my sister cleaned the area outside the tent for the fire. When I had collected enough wood, I decided to light the fire. I looked around for the matches, but I couldn't find them. (3) ____ Luckily, I had learned survival skills at school and I managed to light the fire by rubbing a stick onto a piece of light wood. It wasn't easy, but I soon realized something. It is important to always be prepared on camping trips!

With the fire lit, we enjoyed a delicious meal of grilled meat and enjoyed the amazing view of the night sky. (4) ____ The next day we all rode our bikes to the village to get supplies. In the evening we played board games and talked around the fire. I was responsible for the campfire every evening and by the end of the week, I had become a real expert!

Our vacation didn't start well, but it's amazing how quickly I changed my opinion about camping. (5) ____ I had learned about how important it is to be prepared, but also how much fun you can have without computer games, phones and technology!
